Three confidential informants of known reliability have advised that on several occasions during 1948 Harold Ober, 40 East 49th Street, New York City, father of this employee, had communicated with Anna Louise Strong.

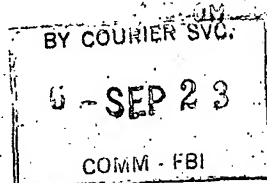

The "International Who's Who" for 1948 - 1949 describes Anna Louise Strong as a writer who organized the "Moscow Daily News" in 1930 and was managing editor of the publication until 1936.

A confidential informant of unknown reliability, a former member of the Communist Party, advised in 1949 that he had known Anna Louise Strong for many years and that in his opinion she could not have functioned as she did without being a member of the Communist Party. According to this informant, Anna Louise Strong had always been accepted and trusted as a Communist, both in the United States and in Russia, by Communist Party members.

An informant of known reliability advised this Bureau in 1946, Ilona Rolf Sues, a writer, had been represented by a literary agent in New York City by the name of Harold Ober. The informant stated that Sues was sympathetic to the Communist Party and very possibly was a Russian propagandist.

Another informant of known reliability advised that he had observed the name of Harold Ober in the possession of Stephen Laird; however, the informant was unable to state the significance of the above.

J. David Whittaker Chambers, former editor of "Time" magazine and a self-admitted former Soviet espionage agent, has advised that Stephen Laird, former head of the Berlin bureau of "Time" magazine, was an avowed Communist.

An informant of known reliability advised that a loyalty pledge submitted by Stephen Laird to the Columbia Broadcasting System in 1951 contained a statement by Laird that he had attended "open" meetings of the Communist Party, but had never signed a Communist Party card, belonged to a Communist Party group, or contributed any money to the Communist Party.

According to information furnished by an informant of known reliability, Harold Ober Associates had paid the sum of $300 to Albert Maltz in August, 1953.

The "New York Daily News" in its issue dated May 7, 1953, reported the testimony of Mrs. Carin Burrows, former actress, before the House Committee on Un-American Activities. The article reported that Mrs. Burrows, in relating her membership in the Communist Party from 1940 to 1948, named Albert Maltz, author, as a person she had known in Hollywood, California, as a member of the Communist Party.

The name and address of Harold Ober, 40 East 49th Street, New York City, was observed in 1945 by an informant of known reliability in the possession of the executive secretary of the United Committee of South Slavic Americans. The informant was unable to explain the significance of Ober's name in the possession of the above-mentioned secretary.

The United Committee of South Slavic Americans has been designated by the Attorney General as an organization within the purview of Executive Order 10450. U

According to information in the files of this Bureau, Richard Ober's father, Harold Ober, is self-employed as a literary agent and a publisher with the business address located at 40 East 49th Street, New York City. U

RESULTS OF INVESTIGATION

MISCELLANEOUS

Los Angeles T-1, a confidential informant who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in July 1955 that the correspondents of ALBERT MALTZ included Harold Ober Associates, 40 East 49th Street, New York, New York.

RICHARD COLLINS, a screen writer, Los Angeles, California, testified before a public hearing of the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA) in Washington, D. C. on April 12, 1951. He testified that in about 1945 or 1946 ALBERT MALTZ, a Communist Party (CP) member, wrote an article in which he made a plea for more freedom for "left wing" and Communist writers.

META ROSENBERG testified before a public hearing of the HCUA in Washington, D. C. on April 13, 1951. ROSENBERG identified ALBERT MALTZ as a CP member sometime during the period of her own membership from 1938 to 1945.

FRANK WRIGHT TUTTLE, a writer and screen director, Los Angeles, California, testified before a public session of the HCUA in Washington, D. C. on May 24, 1951. TUTTLE said he had been a CP member from about 1937 to 1947. He identified ALBERT MALTZ as one of the persons whom he judged to be a CP member, basing this judgment on having attended CP meetings with him, discussing some CP matters with him, or engaging in some CP activity with him.

BERNARD C. SCHOENFELD, a screen writer and novelist, Los Angeles, California, testified before a public session of the HCUA in Washington, D. C. on August 19, 1952. SCHOENFELD said that ALBERT MALTZ had recruited him into the Communist Political Association.

ROY HUGGINS, a motion picture director, Malibu Beach, California, testified before a public session of the HCUA in Los Angeles, California, on September 29, 1952. HUGGINS said that in 1946 ALBERT MALTZ transferred him into a Hollywood branch of the CP.

The CP and the Communist Political Association have been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Los Angeles Examiner," a metropolitan newspaper of Los Angeles, California, carried an Associated Press dispatch datelined London, February 15, 1949, reporting Tass, the official Soviet News Agency, as quoting Moscow newspapers as saying that ANNA LOUISE STRONG, an American newspaper woman, had been arrested in the Soviet zone and "accused of espionage and subversive activity directed against the Soviet Union." The article added she would be deported in a few days.

On February 17, 1949 an article appeared in the "San Francisco Call-Bulletin," a San Francisco, California, metropolitan newspaper, stating that a high-ranking Allied diplomatic official had said that STRONG was ordered expelled from Russia because she became disillusioned about Communism and "lost her value" to the U.S.S.R. This official was quoted in this article as stating, "Dr. STRONG's ouster was a direct result of her increasing differences with the kremlin. Recently she became disillusioned about the Soviet cause and hence was considered no longer useful."

ANNA LOUISE STRONG was interviewed by Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation on March 30 and 31, 1949. She advised at that time that she was an American writer and had been expelled from the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics (U.S.S.R.) in February 1949. She said she had been a writer and newspaper correspondent in the U.S.S.R. during 1921 to 1949, travelling for intervals in Spain, China, and the United States. She said she had organized the "Moscow Daily News" in 1929, which was the first English language newspaper in Moscow. She served as Managing Editor until 1936. STRONG said she entered into a common-law marriage in Moscow in 1932 with a member of the Russian Communist Party. She said she had asked permission at one time to join the Russian Communist Party but was told she could not. She said she had been advised by an American Communist Party leader not to join the American Communist Party but to continue to work in their behalf. She said she had been insistent on becoming a member of the CP and had given this official money which she believed sufficient to cover one year's dues. She said, however, she was never issued a CP membership card.

A publication of STRONG called "Today," issued in late April 1953, No. 20, relates the circumstances of her arrest by authorities of the U.S.S.R., stating she was charged with being a "spy." STRONG continues in this publication by quoting a cable she had directed to Premier MALENKOV of the U.S.S.R. in which she requests that the Soviet authorities "clear" her case, stating that the Moscow Security Police had arrested her as a "spy." STRONG said, "Thus a world-wide useful work was destroyed and world-wide friends of the U.S.S.R. perplexed. I earnestly beg if any evidence indicates I ever injured the U.S.S.R., permit me to know and answer, making amends. But if no evidence exists, permit Pravda to state this, restoring my reputation."

"Pravda" is an official news medium of the U.S.S.R.

The "Los Angeles Times," a metropolitan newspaper, in its issue of March 5, 1955, in a story datelined Moscow, March 4, states that the Soviet Government had announced that ANNA LOUISE STRONG was framed by the former Russian Police Chief. The item states she had been cleared by the Russian Government of a charge of spying. The item states that before her arrest by the Russians STRONG was considered an out-spoken defender of Soviet policies and was a frequent contributor to Communist publications. She was quoted by the newspaper article as stating she was "delighted" that she had been cleared of charges of spying against the Russians. The article quoted her as saying that her attitude towards the Communists and Soviet Russia "has not fundamentally changed."

Education

On July 18, 1956, Mrs. KATHERINE DONOVAN, Secretary to the Director of Admissions, Phillips Exeter Academy, Exeter, New Hampshire, advised her records disclosed RICHARD OBER was enrolled at Phillips Exeter Academy in September, 1936 and on June 24, 1940 received a diploma. His date of birth was listed as April 5, 1921 and his home address as [REDACTED] b6 per CIA [REDACTED] and his father as HAROLD OBER. Mrs. DONOVAN stated that the records further disclosed that no disciplinary action was taken against RICHARD OBER during his attendance and there was nothing in the records which would reflect adversely on his character, reputation, associates or loyalty to the United States.

On July 18, 1956, Mrs. HAROLD N. EAMES, Secretary, Alumni Office, Phillips Exeter Academy, stated that her records included an excerpt from the "New York Times" dated March 31, 1951 stating that RICHARD OBER was married that date to [REDACTED] of b6 per CIA [REDACTED]. Mrs. EAMES stated there was no additional information contained in the Employee's alumni folder.

On July 18, 1956, WILLIAM G. SALTONSTALL, Principal, Phillips Exeter Academy, who was also listed as a reference, advised that he has known the Employee and his father, HAROLD OBER, since 1936. Mr. SALTONSTALL described the Employee as an exceptional student and a stable young man of high integrity. Mr. SALTONSTALL further stated that both the Employee and his father have an excellent reputation for character and associates and they are unquestionably loyal citizens of the United States. Mr. SALTONSTALL stated that the Employee's father is a literary agent, having offices in New York and he was not familiar with his business associates or social acquaintances. Mr. SALTONSTALL recommended the Employee for a position of trust and confidence with the United States Government.

Boston T-1, a businessman who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on August 11, 1954 that among names which appeared on a partial mailing list of the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc. (SCEF) appeared the following name and address:

WILLIAM G. SALTONSTALL
27 Pine Street
Exeter, New Hampshire

Boston T-2, Boston T-3 and Boston T-4, who have furnished reliable information in the past and who possess some knowledge of the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc. (SCEF), and the Southern Conference for Human Welfare (SCHW), have advised that the SCEF was originally an adjunct of the SCHW prior to its demise in 1948. The SCEF, Inc., continued as a separate and independent organization, stressing the fact it was non-political in nature. It has devoted its efforts primarily to race relations, campaigning against discrimination and segregation.

Boston T-2 and T-3 have advised that the principal leaders of the SCEF, Inc., were the same as those of the SCHW. JAMES ANDERSON DOMBROWSKI has served as Director of both organizations. While the Communist Party was interested in infiltrating and controlling the SCHW, it has given little indication of interest in the SCEF, Inc.

The Southern Conference for Human Welfare has been cited by the Congressional Committee on Un-American Activities as a Communist front.

On April 19, 1949, the late PAUL G^CROUCH, a self-confessed former Communist Party organizer; on May 3, 1949 Boston T-5, an anti-Communist labor leader who was active in the SCHW, and between May 28, 1948 and November 10, 1948, Boston T-6, an educator who was an official of the SCHW in New Orleans, advised that JAMES A. DOMBROWSKI worked closely in the past with Communist Party members and invariably followed their advice along Communist Party lines. Boston T-5 advised that DOMBROWSKI argued that his decisions siding with the Communist Party clique were the result of independent thinking and that he was a Christian Socialist.

Boston T-7, who has furnished reliable information in the past and who is a long-time member of the Communist Party, advised on May 5, 1951, that he did not believe DOMBROWSKI to be a member of the Communist Party, but knew him as being sympathetic with the Party over a period of years. He said DOMBROWSKI took orders from the Communist Party and was an officer in the SCHW through the determined efforts of the Communist Party.

Boston T-8, who has furnished reliable information in the past and who is familiar with some phases of Communist Party activity, advised on June 25, 1953 that at a bimonthly state committee meeting of the Communist Party in New Orleans in approximately October or November, 1952, it was stated DOMBROWSKI had pledged some money to the Communist Party fund drive.

Boston T-3 advised on May 19, 1953 that at a section committee meeting of the Communist Party in New Orleans on May 16, 1953, it was stated that DOMBROWSKI has three Communist Party members working on the board of the SCEF, Inc., who DOMBROWSKI knew were Communists and that he discussed matters with these individuals. It was also stated that the Communist Party could not get more out of DOMBROWSKI if he had Communist Party membership.

The Communist Party, USA, has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order #10450.

The "Concord Monitor", a local newspaper published at Concord, New Hampshire, for July 8, 1949 contained an article captioned, "Loyalty Oath View Heard". The article indicated that the Joint Senate Educational and Judiciary Committees of the New Hampshire Legislature during the previous day heard closing arguments on the proposed loyalty oath for New Hampshire teachers. The article stated that among those persons opposing the measure was WILLIAM G. SALTONSTALL, Principal of Phillips Exeter Academy.

MYRON R. WILLIAMS, Director of Studies, Phillips Exeter Academy, advised on July 19, 1956 that he recalled RICHARD OBER as a student at the Academy and stated that he regarded him as a highly reliable, conscientious young man of excellent character and associates and one who, in his opinion, was unquestionably a loyal citizen of the United States. He recommended him for a position of trust and confidence with the United States Government. Mr. WILLIAMS added that he was slightly acquainted with the Employee's father, HAROLD OBER, and knew of nothing concerning him which would reflect unfavorably on his character, reputation, associates or loyalty to the United States.

On July 17, 1956, Mrs. MARY JAEDYNAK, Secretary, Registrar's Office, Harvard College, Cambridge, Massachusetts, made available records of that office which disclosed RICHARD OBER, born April 5, 1921 at New York, New York, was admitted to Harvard College from Phillips Exeter Academy in September, 1940. His father's name was listed as ^{also} HAROLD CLARK OBER and his mother as [REDACTED] and their home address as [REDACTED] b6 per CIA [REDACTED]. The Employee's field of concentration was philosophy and history and he was awarded an A.B. degree on May 27, 1943. It was indicated that while at Harvard College he resided at Winthrop House, a college dormitory. There was nothing in the record which would reflect adversely on the Employee's character, reputation, associates or loyalty to the United States.

On July 18, 1956, SARGENT KENNEDY, Registrar, Harvard College, reviewed RICHARD OBER's personal folder and advised that all information therein was completely favorable to OBER and there was nothing whatsoever which would reflect adversely on his character, reputation, associates or loyalty to the United States.

On July 23, 1956, Professor DONALD C. WILLIAMS, Philosophy Department, Harvard College, advised that in 1941 he was senior tutor at Winthrop House, Harvard College, and recalled the Employee as a resident of Winthrop House and a student in his philosophy classes. Professor WILLIAMS stated that although he did not have a strong recollection of the Employee, he knew of nothing which would cause him to question his character, reputation, associates or loyalty to the United States.

On July 20, 1956, Professor OSCAR HANDLIN, History Department, Harvard College, stated that in 1942 he was a tutor at Winthrop House and that he recalled the Employee as a resident there and as a student in his history classes. He said that he knew of nothing which would cause him to question the Employee's character, reputation, associates or loyalty to the United States.

On July 19, 1956, Dr. RONALD M. FERRY, Housemaster, Winthrop House, Harvard College, advised that he recalled RICHARD OBER as a resident of Winthrop House during his attendance at Harvard College. He described the Employee as a sober, stable young man of excellent character, reputation and associates and, in his opinion, unquestionably a loyal citizen of the United States. Dr. FERRY stated that he could furnish a similar recommendation for the Employee's roommates who were also excellent young men. He said that he was slightly acquainted with the Employee's father, but was not familiar with his business associates or social acquaintances and that, to the best of his knowledge, the Employee's father enjoyed an excellent reputation for character, associates and loyalty to the United States. He recommended Employee without qualification for a position of trust and confidence with the United States Government.

On July 23, 1956, Dr. D. WARD SLINGERLAND, 29 Cunningham Road, Wellesley Hills, Massachusetts, attached to the Veterans Administration Hospital, South Huntington Avenue, Boston, Massachusetts, stated he has known RICHARD OBER since 1936 when both entered Phillips Exeter Academy at Exeter, New Hampshire. Dr. SLINGERLAND stated that they subsequently entered Harvard College in 1940 and were roommates during their college years. He stated that as a result of his close association with the Employee, there is absolutely no question concerning the Employee's character, reputation, associates or loyalty to the United States. He recommended the Employee most highly for a position of trust and confidence with the United States Government.

Dr. SLINGERLAND further stated that he has become well acquainted with members of Employee's family and he recommended the Employee's parents and brother similarly with regard to character, reputation, associates and loyalty to the United States.

References

On July 26, 1956, THOMAS P. SMITH, Ship Street, Hingham, Massachusetts, advised he has been acquainted with Employee's father for the past fifty years. Mr. SMITH said he has known the Employee for his entire lifetime during which he has been a frequent visitor to the SMITH home in Hingham together with other members of his family. Mr. SMITH stated he is not acquainted with all of the business associates or social acquaintances of the Employee's father, but said he was certain that it would not alter his high standards of character and integrity nor his loyalty to the United States. Mr. SMITH described all members of the family as persons of excellent character, reputation and associates and unquestionably loyal citizens of the United States. He recommended the Employee without qualification for a position of trust and confidence with the United States Government.

Mr. E. S. WELLS KERR, Dean, Phillips Exeter Academy, Exeter, New Hampshire, listed as a reference, according to WILLIAM G. SALTONSTALL, is presently en route to Rotterdam, Holland, and will not return to the United States until September, 1956.

Rerep of SA [redacted] dated 7/31/56, at New York. As noted on administrative page 18 of rerep CIA, 1b7C requesting FFI re employee, expressed desire for information as to whether employee's father's association with certain individuals on whom there exists adverse security data, including Anna Louise Strong, Albert Maltz and others, is of security significance or whether his contacts with such persons have been confined to literary agent business. Rerep indicates that a number of individuals acquainted with employee's father have been contacted but were unable to furnish data re father's associates in literary field. As investigation to date has not resolved above-mentioned request by CIA your office should make discreet efforts to identify and interview reliable sources in the literary field who are familiar with the reputation and associates of employee's father. This should be done in a most discreet and circumspect manner by mature and experienced agent personnel. Give preferred handling and submit supplemental report to reach Bureau within 10 days from date.

NOTE: FFI being conducted in this case at CIA's request based on employee's father's association with persons such as Anna Louise Strong and other writers on whom there exists adverse security data. Employee's father, Harold Ober, is a literary agent and it is possible that his contacts mentioned by CIA have been due to the nature of his business rather than any adherence to subversive doctrines. Neighbors and acquaintances acquainted with the father have spoken highly of reputation of the family but such acquaintances were not familiar with father's business associates. New York is therefore being instructed to identify and interview reliable sources in literary field who are acquainted with father's business activities.

aka Dick
~~Intelligence Officer~~
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.
SECURITY OF GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES

July 31, 1956
New York, New York

BASIS FOR INVESTIGATION

This investigation was conducted upon the specific request of the Central Intelligence Agency based upon information furnished by New York T-1, who was in a position to furnish reliable information, on September 6, 1945, to the effect that the name of HAROLD OBER, 40 East 49th Street, New York 11; New York, was one of a list of names maintained by ANNE TRAVEN, acting executive secretary of the United Committee of South Slavic Americans.

On a personal history statement dated June 5, 1948, filled out by the employee, he listed his father as HAROLD OBER, self-employed, occupation - publishing, business address 40 East 49th Street, New York, New York.

The United Committee of South Slavic Americans has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

RESULTS OF INVESTIGATION

New York T-1, mentioned previously, is unavailable for recontact.

During a previous investigation conducted by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, 1946-1951, New York T-2, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in 1946, that one LLONA RALF SUES, author of "Shark's Fins and Millet," a book which the informant described as a well done piece of propaganda for the Chinese Red forces, had been represented by an agent in New York by the name of HAROLD OBER.

~~SECRET~~

This informant advised that SUES was sympathetic to the Communist Party and very possibly a Russian propagandist.

The Communist Party has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

New York T-2 was recontacted on July 27, 1956, and she could furnish no additional information concerning LLONA RALF SUES. This informant declined to furnish a signed statement or appear before a Security Hearing Board.

Records of Immigration and Naturalization Service, 70 Columbus Avenue, New York City, as reviewed during this previous investigation, reflected that on a General Information Form dated August 23, 1941, LLONA SUESS, also known as: Llona Rolf Suess, Rolf Suess, Ralf Sues, was born September 27, 1896 in Lodz; and was a Polish citizen by option. She indicated she had first entered the United States in 1914, left in 1915 and reentered in 1941 as a passenger in transit. She listed her last previous employment as being with the Chinese government, handling Chinese government publicity from October, 1937 to September, 1938. She stated she had been unemployed since her arrival in the United States, but this form contained a statement by her which stated "I talk and write about China whenever I get a chance; photos and freelance articles, broadcasts on China, since 1936 in China, France, Switzerland and I hope in the United States of America by means of articles and book, but no government or Party sponsorship."

In January, 1944, a book by LLONA RALF SUES entitled "Shark's Fins and Millet" was published by Little Brown and Company, Boston, Massachusetts and was reviewed by ORVILLE PRESCOTT in the "New York Times" issue of January 19, 1944. He commented: "LLONA RALF SUES is a Polish intellectual journalist and left-wing idealist"

"China, Miss SUES is convinced, is not a democracy and has no chance of becoming one under the one Party authoritarian role of the Kuomintang"

"If Miss SUES is discouraged about the prospect for democracy under the central government, she has unbounded faith in and admiration for the Chinese Communists and their achievements, both in social and civil administration."

The June 25, 1946 issue of the "Daily Worker," page 8, column 3, contains an article which states in part as follows:

"The Third 'Forum for Democracy' sponsored by the N.Y. Independent Citizens' Committee of the Arts, Sciences, and Profession will be held tomorrow night at the Henry Hudson Hotel Ballroom, 8:30 p.m.....principal speakers are: LLLONA ROLF SUES, author of Shark Fins and Millet, who will ealk on the Far East....."

The March 6, 1946 issue of the "Daily Worker," page 4, column 5, contains an article entitled "CHIANG Amnesty Vow Unfulfilled." This article states in part "T...Thousands of political prisoners still remain in concentration camps.....the Committee for a Democratic Far Eastern Policy charged here today....."

".....LLONA ROLF SUES.....are among the directors and consultants of the Committee for a Democratic Far Eastern Policy."

The "Daily Worker" is an East Coast Communist newspaper.

The Committee for a Democratic Far Eastern Policy has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications" dated May 14, 1951, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., reflects the following concerning the Independent Citizens Committee of the Arts, Sciences, and Professions:

- "1. Cited as a Communist front.
(Congressional Committee on Un-American Activities, Review of the Scientific and Cultural Conference for World Peace arranged by the National Council of the Arts, Sciences, and Professions and held in New York City on March 25, 26, and 27, 1949, House Report No. 1954, April 26, 1950 (originally released April 19, 1949,)), p. 2; and House Report No. 378, on the Communist 'Peace' Offensive, April 25 1951, original date, April 1, 1951, pp. 11 and 12.)

"2. 'This Communist front grew out of the Independent Voters' Committee of the Arts and Sciences.'

(California Committee on Un-American Activities, Report, 1948, p. 262.)"

New York T-3, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on June 30, 1950, that LLONA RALF SUES was an author of books on China, who worked for Madame CHIANG KAI-SHEK and the Chinese Nationalist government, although secretly a Communist at the time. It was this informant's recollection that he had been introduced to Miss SUES in 1944 at the time of the publication of her book "Shark's Fins and Millet." This introduction took place in the New York Office of the "Daily Worker." This informant also stated that he had received official advice in connection with the campaign in 1944 on China and this advice was to the effect that Miss SUES was a loyal member of the Communist organization and engaged from the first, in informational work for the Communist cause.

Mr. RALF HURWITZ, Inspector, Immigration and Naturalization Service, New York City, advised that on November 10, 1951, LLONA RALF SUES sailed for Cherbourg, France, aboard the "SS De Grasse" and before leaving she signed the Immigration and Naturalization Service form "Abandonment of Domicile." According to Mr. HURWITZ, Miss SUES advised him that she was aware that the execution of the document would most likely preclude her re-admission to the United States.

New York T-4, who holds a responsible position in New York City, advised on September 30, 1953, that HAROLD OBER Associates (no further designation) received a check dated August 7, 1953 in the amount of $300.00 from one ALBERT MALTZ.

Additional information concerning ALBERT MALTZ is being set forth by another office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

New York T-4 was recontacted on July 26, 1956 and advised that he could furnish no additional information concerning HAROLD OBER Associates other than that previously furnished.

He declined to furnish a signed statement or appear before a Security Hearing Board.

EDWARD T. MC CRYSTAL, Desk Clerk, Hotel Wentworth, 59 West 46th Street, New York City, advised on February 18, 1948, that one ANNA LOUISE STRONG had registered at this hotel on February 7, 1948 and checked out on February 18, 1948. He advised that during this period, Miss STRONG made several telephone calls to telephone listing Plaza 9-8600.

New York T-5, who was in a position to furnish reliable information, advised that this telephone number was listed to HAROLD OBER Associates, 40 East 49th Street, New York City.

Additional information concerning ANNA LOUISE STRONG is being set out by another office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Mr. MC CRYSTAL was recontacted on July 26, 1956 and advised that he could furnish no additional information concerning the above events. Mrs. GLADYS LINDSAY, Registrar's Office, Professional School, advised from records on July 19, 1956, that RICHARD OBER, [REDACTED] was admitted as a regular student in the School of International Affairs in September of 1946. He attended this school from September, 1946 to January, 1947; from February, 1947 to June, 1947; from September, 1947, to January, 1948; from February, 1948 to June, 1948. A Master's Degree in International Affairs was conferred on this student on June 1, 1948.

This record contained no information reflecting unfavorably upon the character, reputation or loyalty of the employee.

Mrs. ROBERT M. JEFFERS, Departmental Secretary, School of International Affairs, advised on July 26, 1956, that there are presently no professors or instructors associated with this school who were there during the period of the employee's attendance, except Professor WALLACE. She further advised that Professor WALLACE is presently on vacation and is will not return to the university until September.

HENRY H. BAME, 116 East 96th Street, New York City, advised on July 25, 1956, that he had been a close associate of the employee during the time they attended Exeter Academy and Harvard University. He stated that he and the employee were roommates at Harvard and during one summer vacation, took a trip across the country together. They have had virtually no contact since their college years and he remarked that he has not seen the employee since 1949. Mr. BAME recalled that he met the employee's parents and brother and stayed at their home on a few occasions. He described the OBER family as a fine group of excellent character and reputation and he knew of nothing which would cause him to question the loyalty of either the employee or any of his family. He concluded by stating that he would highly recommend the employee for a position of trust and confidence with the United States government.

RESIDENCE

b6 per CIA

Mrs. JAMES REID, [redacted] advised on July 17, 1956, that she has been acquainted with the OBER for about six years. While she has met the employee, she did not feel that she knew him well since she has seen him only when he is visiting his family. She stated that the OBER family impressed her as people who enjoy an excellent reputation in the community and that nothing has ever happened which would reflect in any way upon the loyalty of the OBER family. Mrs. REID added that [redacted] is a dead end street occupied by approximately five residences. She stated that one Mr. WOLCOTT who formerly resided on this Road, moved years ago to Connecticut and the other three people presently residing here are on vacation at the present time. b6 per CIA

Mrs. ANDREW WILSON, 401 Fort Hill Road, Scarsdale, New York, advised on July 17, 1956, that she has known the employee since he was a child. She stated that she is a very close friend of the employee's parents. She described the father of the employee as a very successful literary agent and the entire family lives quietly and enjoys a very respectable reputation in the neighborhood. She pointed out that the employee was working at the present time, primarily because he felt he could be contributing to the welfare of the country and not from any pecuniary motive. Mrs. WILSON stated that the employee has been away from this area for a long period of time and she has had virtually no contact with him over the past 10 years. She added, however, that in all the years she has known the family, she has never had the slightest indication that any member of the family has ever displayed any interest in Communism or any other subversive ideology.

REFERENCES

MEREDITH WOOD, 345 Hudson Street, New York City, advised on July 25, 1956, that he has been intimately acquainted with the OBER family since about 1921. His association has been entirely on a social and not a business basis.

Mr. WOOD described this family as fine people of excellent character and reputation. The employee is a sociable and intelligent lad who is extremely "tightmouthed." Mr. WOOD explained that he arrived at this conclusion because he has engaged the employee in numerous conversations which occasionally would touch upon the employee's work. On these occasions the employee never indicated in any fashion what kind of work he was doing or anything concerning it. From a discussion of controversial issues and current events, Mr. WOOD stated he felt that the OBER family was undoubtedly affiliated with one of the two major political parties. He concluded by stating that he considers the entire OBER family to be solid, substantial American citizens who have never given any indication of any subversive tendencies. He remarked in regard to the employee, that he would recommend him highly for a position of trust and confidence, adding "you couldn't have picked a finer man."

Mr. F. HARRISON POOLE, 30 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, New York, advised on July 27, 1956, that he met the employee at Harvard University in the early 1940's. He stated that they both belonged to the same Reserve Officers' Training Corps at Harvard and when they finished school, each was assigned to the same unit in the Army and went to Officer Candidate School together.

He stated that they were very close friends during this period of time, but that he has not seen too much of him since about 1948.

Mr. POOLE advised the employee spent about four weeks with him at his mother's home in Gloucester, Massachusetts, during March 1946 and that he, Mr. POOLE, lived with the employee's parents for a few months in 1946 while he was trying to obtain suitable living accommodations for himself and his wife.

Mr. POOLE stated that he is very well acquainted with both the employee and his family and in his estimation, they are people of the highest character whose reputation and loyalty to this country are without question. He stated the employee is a "closemouthed guy" and that the government could not find a better man for a sensitive position.

RANDOLPH P. COMPTON, 17 Wall Street, New York City, advised on July 26, 1956, that he has known the OBER family personally since about 1922. He stated his acquaintanceship has been on a social and not a business plane.

He stated that since the employee has entered government service, his personal contact with him has been slight. He recalled, however, that a few years ago he and the employee went on a hunting trip to Canada, during which time their relationship was extremely close and he based most of his reactions upon that period. Mr. COMPTON described the employee and the entire OBER family as reputable people who enjoy a good reputation in New York City. He described the employee as extremely reserved in discussing his work and it was his impression that he is well thought of by all his acquaintances no matter what their age group. He stated that in the entire length of time he has known the OBER family, he has never had any reason to question their loyalty to the United States and he felt that the employee was well qualified for his recommendation for a position of trust and confidence with the United States government.

MISCELLANEOUS

It is to be noted that during a previous investigation conducted by the Federal Bureau of Investigation in 1954 concerning one WENDELL PHILLIPS REYNOLDS, HAROLD OBER, literary agent, 40 East 49th Street, New York City, was interviewed and advised he had formerly been associated with the firm of WENDELL REYNOLDS' father and had known the REYNOLDS' family since 1908. During that investigation, Mr. OBER advised he would have no reason to question the character, reputation or loyalty of Mr. REYNOLDS or his family.

WENDELL PHILLIPS REYNOLDS was investigated by the Federal Bureau of Investigation in 1954 under the provisions of Executive Order 10450 in the case entitled "WENDELL PHILLIPS REYNOLDS, Passport and Citizenship Clerk, Department of State, Panama - Security of Government Employees."

By letter dated April 27, 1956, the United States Civil Service Commission advised that the case involving REYNOLDS had been adjudicated under the provisions of Executive Order 10450 as a result of which a favorable determination had been reached.

The files of the Central Intelligence Agency, Washington, D. C., reflect that during a recent personal interview, the employee advised a representative of that agency that his father HAROLD OBER is a literary agent and a rather well known figure in his business. He related that his father formerly was the sole owner of his business, but "a few years ago" took in as his associates two individuals named IVAN VON AUW and DOROTHY OLDING. The employee advised that he did not know either of these individuals very well, but believes that VON AUW specialized in television scripts.

EDWARD T. MC CRYSTAL, mentioned previously, advised on February 18, 1948, that ANNA LOUISE STRONG, while registered at the Hotel Wentworth from February 7, 1948 to February 18, 1948 had called telephone listing Gramercy 3-5732.

New York T-5, mentioned previously, advised this number was listed to IVAN VON AUW, 12 East 10th Street, New York City. As set forth previously, additional information concerning Miss STRONG is being set out by another office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Information was received from New York T-6, who has furnished reliable information in the past, on various dates between March 12, 1952 and June 26, 1952, that he had observed approximately 11 press releases issued by the National Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg Case, 246 5th Avenue, New York City and released between March and July, 1952. These releases were issued on the letterhead of this committee and the letterheads contain a partial list of sponsors of this committee. The name of IVAN VON AUW was included as one of these sponsors.

The National Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg Case maintains national headquarters in room D, 940 Broadway, New York City and the mailbox servicing this office is labeled "Sobell Committee."

JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG and MORTON SOBELL were convicted in the United States District Court, Southern District of New York, on March 29, 1951, of conspiracy to commit espionage on behalf of the Soviet Union. The ROSENBERGs were sentenced to death on April 5, 1951 and MORTON SOBELL to 30 years imprisonment on the same date. JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG were legally executed at Sing Sing Prison, Ossining,

New York on June 19, 1953, and MORTON SOBELL is currently serving his sentence at the United States Penitentiary, Alcatraz, California.

HOWARD RUSHMORE, a newspaper reporter with the "New York Journal American," advised in January, 1952, that the National Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg Case was formed on January 2, 1952, for the purpose of obtaining a new trial for the ROSENBERGS.

New York T-7, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on May 9, 1956, that the National Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg Case was attempting to keep alive the Rosenberg Case and to fight for the release of MORTON SOBELL. He stated that the Communist Party took an extremely active part in assisting the Committee.

The January 3, 1949 issue of the "Daily Worker" page 7, columns 1, 2, and 3, contains an article entitled "Signers of Open Letter to End House Un-American Committee."

This article states: "Following are the names of the 313 educators, writers, scientists, artists, and clergymen who signed an open letter to members of the 81st Congress urging abolition of the House Un-American Activities Committee." Column 3 contains the name of one of the signers, "IVAN VON AUW, Jr., New York City."

Volume 4, #21 issue of the "National Guardian" dated March 12, 1952, on page 5, contains an appeal for funds by the National Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg Case. IVAN VON AUW is listed as one of the partial list of sponsors of this organization.

The 1949 report of the California Committee on Un-American Activities cited the "National Guardian" as a publication launched in New York in 1948, aiming at national circulation, which they found to be, from its inception, notoriously Stalinist in its staff, writers, management, and content. (1949 report of the California Senate Fact-Finding Committee on Un-American Activities, page 394.)

Mr. PHILLIP DUNNING, 220 West 42nd Street, New York City, advised on April 11, 1942, that IVAN VON AUW, Jr. whom he described as "formerly assistant secretary of the Authors League of America" was "now" with HAROLD OBER Literary Agency, New York City.

PAUL MILTON, 54 East 81st Street, New York City, a member of the Radio Writers Guild, advised that as of about May, 1954, and prior thereto, the Authors League of America was composed of the Authors Guild, Dramatists Guild, the Radio Writers Guild, and the Television Writers Guild, with national headquarters in New York City. He advised that in his opinion, the Authors League of America was at that time Communist infiltrated, but not Communist dominated.

Mr. MILTON advised on May 31, 1955, that the Radio Writers Guild and the Screen Writers Guild had withdrawn from the Authors League of America to form the Writers Guild of America. He further advised that the Radio Writers Guild was the subject of investigative hearings conducted by the United States Senate Internal Security Subcommittee in April, 1951 and was also criticized by the professed anti-Communist element in the Radio Writers Guild for alleged pro-Communist activities. MILTON stated that he is of the opinion that the removal of the Radio Writers Guild from the Authors League of America would tend to make the latter organization less subject to being referred to as Communist infiltrated.

Mr. MILTON advised on November 29, 1955, that he has no knowledge of any Communist Party activity or infiltration of the Authors League of America at the present time.

In regard to IVAN VON AUW, mentioned in re report, New York file 100-2545-769, reflects that on 10/27/1947, Mrs. RICHARD C. HALL, 63-23 76th Street, Queens, New York, made available an index card drawer containing approximately 1200 names which she had received from the Lee Letter Service, 19 West 44th Street, NYC. According to a memorandum prepared at that time, Mrs. HALL was assigned to type envelopes addressed to the names contained on these cards. It was noted that the reverse side of the envelopes contained the printed legend "PAUL ROBESON, VALB." The memo stated that the index cards were "apparently maintained by the VALB and contained data regarding past contributions to the VALB." These cards were photostated by the New York Office and one of them bears the name of IVAN VON AUW, 12 East 10th Street, New York City.

A review of the photostats of the index cards, maintained as exhibits in the NYO, fails to reflect any identifying data on the cards which would indicate that they are in fact a mailing list of the VALB, nor are the notations on the cards identifiable as past contributions to the VALB. Judging from the circumstances surrounding Mrs. HALL's possession of these cards, it appears unlikely that she could furnish any positive information concerning their initial source. Since the exact significance and original source of this list are not known, no mention of it was made in instant report.

SCHEYLER WALLACE, Professor, School of International Affairs, Columbia University, who is listed on the employee's

NY 140-2347

PHS as his instructor at Columbia, is maintained on the caution list of the New York Office. Investigation at New York City, as reflected in instant report, indicates WALLACE is presently on vacation and unavailable for interview.

One copy of this report is being designated for Washington Field Office, inasmuch as the employee is employed in the area covered by that Office.

This report is stamped ~~Secret~~ inasmuch as the CIA information referred to in instant report is taken from memoranda so stamped by that agency.

No investigation was conducted regarding the employee's listed employment at the Depot Service Station, Scarsdale, New York from 7/5/41 - 7/19/41. It was not felt that a two weeks employment of 15 years ago would be likely to disclose any substantial information bearing upon the employee's loyalty.

Bureau letter of 7/10/56 to Washington Field in this matter refers to CIA request that information be developed concerning the significance of associations of the employee's father with individuals suspected of having been involved in Soviet intelligence operations or persons suspected of having been involved in CP activities. It is pointed out that during the course of this investigation discreet inquiry was made of those individuals interviewed who were believed to be in a position to furnish knowledge concerning the employee's father's business, and possibly his associations therein. All individuals questioned stated that their association with the employee's father was on a social plane and not a business plane and consequently they would be unable to furnish any information concerning his associates in the literary field.

FFI requested by CIA on the basis of info that the name of HAROLD OBER, the employee's father, was on a list of names maintained by the secretary of the United Committee of South Slavic Americans.

Info was also developed that employee's father has been in contact with several individuals of questionable loyalty.

The report of SA WAYNE K. WELCH at San Francisco, dated 11/22/54, captioned OWEN LATTIMORE, Espionage-R, Perjury (SF 100-31051) (LA 65-4945), on pages 11 and 15 sets forth info concerning HAROLD OBER, 40 E. 49th St., N.Y.

On a Personal History Statement dated 6/5/48, executed by the employee and maintained in his file at the CIA, he lists HAROLD OBER, business address of 40E. 49th St., New York, New York, as his father. On this PHS he listed his father's birth data as 7/25/81, Laconia, New Hampshire, and his occupation as the publishing business.

A review of the above report of SA WELCH reflected that the info concerning HAROLD OBER on page 11 originated with WAYNE V. MASTERSON, 2031 W. Von Wich St., Los Angeles, California.

LA is requested to report pertinent info.

RICHARD OBER, aka
"Dick"
Intelligence Officer
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.
SECURITY OF GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES

August 9, 1956
Washington, D. C.

PERSONAL HISTORY

The following background information was obtained from the files of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) and interviews of fellow employees.

RICHARD OBER was born April 5, 1921, at New York City.

He attended high school at Exeter, New Hampshire, from 1936-40; Harvard College, Cambridge, Massachusetts, from 1940-43, and Columbia University, New York City, from 1946-48.

OBER served in the United States Army from 1943-46.

Since December, 1948, he has been employed by the CIA.

He presently resides with his wife and children at Fairfax Station, Virginia.

RESULTS OF INVESTIGATION

The files of Washington T-1, another Government agency which conducts personnel and security investigations, were reviewed on July 30, 1956, and reflected that OBER was recently interviewed in regard to his knowledge of the activities of his father and furnished the following information:

"Subject stated that his father has been a literary agent since shortly after the graduation of his father from college, and that, in the business, he is a rather well-known figure. Subject stated that his father previously was the sole owner and operator of the business but, a few years ago, took in as associates two individuals who had previously been employed by him. These individuals were IVAN VON AUW and DOROTHY OLDING.

~~SECRET~~

Subject stated that he did not know either of these individuals very well but believed that VON AUW specialized in television scripts.

"Subject indicated that it was very possible that his father, through his business, may have been, or could conceivably have been, connected or associated with individuals in the literary field or publication field who have been pro-Communist or involved in Communist activities. Subject stated that he was quite aware that certain prominent individuals in the literary field have "peculiar political views." However, subject stated that he did not recall his father ever making any remark indicating that he knew, was the literary agent, or was associated with, anyone of leftist sympathies or who was involved in activities of a Communist nature.

"Subject stated that in regard to the individuals for whom his father was literary agent he had little knowledge in regard to the business activities of his father in recent years, but that he did recall several years ago that his father had, among other clients, WALTER D. EDMONDS, FANNIE HYSLIP LEE, AGATHA CHRISTIE, F. SCOTT FITZGERALD and PHILLIP WYLIE. Subject stated that he had never been connected with the literary agent business of his father and actually had little knowledge of the business.....

"In regard to his father, subject stated that his father was a "liberal" in the strict sense of the word, and an individual who was personally very interested in civil rights, government security standards, and similar issues, but was not a "joiner" and had no organizational connections of which the subject was aware other than those of a professional type. Subject stated that his father was not politically active, but was a supporter of one of the major political parties and, to his knowledge, has never been connected in any way with any organization of a Communist or pro-Communist nature."

The files of Washington T-1, reflected that OBER was investigated by that agency in 1948 in connection with his application for a position there, and that all the informants contacted commented favorably concerning him.

Employment

[redacted] Personnel Officer, CIA, reviewed b3 per CIA the employee's personnel file on July 30, 1956, and stated b6 that OBER entered on duty on December 6, 1948, as a Foreign Affairs Analyst and that he is presently employed as an Intelligence Officer. He stated that the record reflected that OBER was overseas in Germany from about March, 1952, through October, 1954. [] stated that the information in that file concerning the employee was all favorable.

b6

[] Area Division Staff Chief, CIA, stated on July 30, 1956, that he first met OBER about 1951 or 1952 in Washington, D. C. He said that they were not in the [] Division at the time, but did have business dealings. He said that when OBER did return to the United States on leave from his foreign assignment, the employee did check in with him for consultation.

b6

[] stated that OBER was under his indirect supervision for several months following his return from [] in the latter part of 1954. He said that since that time they have had occasional business contact, although for the past several months he has not seen the employee except for occasional meetings in the hallway.

b3 per CIA
b6

[] said that their social contacts have been very limited.

b3 per CIA
b6

He stated that he has never had any occasion to question OBER's loyalty to the United States, and that he considers him to be a person of excellent character and reputation.

[] said that he knew of no organizational affiliations on the employees part and commented that OBER did not impress him as "joiner" type. [] said he is not acquainted with the employee's parents. He said he has met the employee's wife on one or two occasions and that she has impressed him favorably.

b6

[] commented that OBER has somewhat of a quirk in that the employee is the type who wants to make all the decisions rather than delegating responsibility in that respect to his subordinates and as a result employee works himself to the point where he has to take sick leave.

b3 per CIA
b6

[] CIA, stated on July 30, 1956, that he first met OBER about 1952, in Germany but that they only knew each other there very casually as employees of the CIA. He said that they renewed their acquaintances about eight months ago when OBER came under his direct supervision.

b6

[] said their associations have been strictly of a business nature and that he knows nothing of OBER's outside activities or associates. He said that he has had no reason

b3 per CIA

to question OBER's loyalty to the United States and that he considers him to be a person of excellent character and reputation.

[] said he is not acquainted with the employee's wife or parents. b3 per CIA
b6

[] CIA, stated on August 3, 1956, that he first met the employee at the CIA about 1951, but that his main association with him was during the period September, 1954, to April, 1956, during which time he was OBER's immediate supervisor. [] said he knew nothing of the employee's outside activities or his relatives. b3 per CIA
b6

He stated that based on his association with the employee, which has been strictly of a business nature, he would say that OBER is a loyal American of excellent character and reputation.

Mr. HARRY A. ROSITZKE, CIA, who is also a reference of the employee, stated on July 30, 1956, that he became casually acquainted with the employee about 1948-49 in Washington, D. C. He said that OBER worked under his supervision in 1951 and was also under his supervision for about two years in Munich, Germany. He said that in addition to daily business contact at that time, they also saw each other socially quite frequently. Mr. ROSITZKE said that since their return from Germany they have had occasionally social as well as business contacts.

Mr. ROSITZKE said he would have no hesitancy in recommending OBER as a loyal American of excellent moral character and reputation. He said that he knows of no organizational affiliations on the employee's part and commented that OBER works extremely hard in his spare time on a little farm that he has in Virginia. He described OBER as a conscientious, level-headed and serious type of individual.

Mr. ROSITZKE stated that he is also well acquainted with the employee's wife and commented favorably as to her character, reputation and loyalty. He stated that the OBERs have three small children.

He said that he has met the employee's parents on about six occasions and that they visit the employee about twice a year. He said that he would say that OBER is moderately close to his parents and he believes that the employee and his father have a mutual interest in gardening which brings them together. Mr. ROSITZKE commented that OBER is an independent individual who leads his own life and is not the type who would be unduly influenced by his parents.

[redacted] CIA, who is also a reference of the employee, stated on July 30, 1956, that he first met OBER in 1952 in Germany where they were both employed by the CIA. He said that for awhile there the employee was his supervisor and then he became OBER's supervisor and that they have switched back and forth in that respect until recently when they were assigned to different sections. [redacted] said that OBER returned to the United States in the latter part of 1954 and that he came back in February, 1955. He stated that while in Germany and since their return, he and the employee have been close socially as well as in a business capacity. b3 per CIA b6

[redacted] stated that OBER is the most security conscious person he has ever known and that he has absolutely no question in his mind regarding the employee's loyalty to the United States. He said that OBER is a person of excellent character and reputation. [redacted] stated that OBER is or was in the Army reserve and is also possibly affiliated with the Harvard Alumni Association. b3 per CIA b6

[redacted] said he knows the employee's wife quite well and has the same high regard for her. b3 per CIA b6

He stated that he has met the employee's parents and that the employee's mother, herself, visited OBER in [redacted]. Washington T-4, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in 1942 that on April 18, 1940, the Executive Committee of the Washington Chapter voted to disassociate from the Spanish Refugee Relief Campaign and to affiliate with the North American Spanish Aid Committee. According to T-4, STEPHEN LAIRD was among the members in attendance. He also advised that LAIRD was named in a list of the Executive Committee of the Spanish Refugee Relief Campaign.

The Spanish Refugee Relief Campaign was cited by the House Committee on Un-American Activities as a Communist front organization in its report of January 3, 1940.

The North American Spanish Aid Committee has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Washington T-5, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in December, 1949, that STEPHEN LAIRD received a paper bound book entitled "The Communist Trial and American Crossroads." He also advised that the text of that book appeared to describe the injustice allegedly meted the eleven Communist Party leaders by Federal Judge HAROLD R. MEDINA.

Washington T-6, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in April, 1953, that on February 26, 1953, STEPHEN LAIRD stated he had never made a secret of the fact that during and after the Spanish Civil War he had openly expressed himself in favor of the Communist cause and had held pro-Communist views up to the time of the Nazi-Soviet Pact.

Washington T-7, who has furnished reliable information in the past, made available in 1953 the Loyalty Pledge which STEPHEN LAIRD submitted to the Columbia Broadcasting System on January 10, 1951. On that pledge he stated that he was not then or never had been a member of the Communist Party USA or any Communist organizations. On the Loyalty Pledge he typed a one and a half page statement, part of which is quoted as follows:

"I feel strongly against signing and returning this loyal statement: It seems an affront to an individuals Civil rights and dignity;....."

"In 1938 when I was 22, and a Staff Writer on Fortune Magazine, I certainly was what is called a fellow-traveler and was known, willingly, to my colleagues on Fortune and at Timeinc, as a 'Communist.'

"The only Party in the United States I could see which was advocating this collective security and which seemed to see the real dangers of the Nazis and Fascists and Japanese militarists, was the Communist Party. Therefore it seemed to me, one ought openly to say that he agreed with and supported this policy. I attended some 'open meetings of the Communist Party', but I never signed a card, never belonged to a Communist group, never contributed any money to the Communist Party; nor did I ever belong to any Communist 'front' organization."

Washington T-8, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that in October, 1946, INEZ MUNOZ, c/o the American Institute for Foreign Trade, Phoenix, Arizona, had received a communication from HAROLD OBER of 40 East 49th Street, New York, New York.

MILLER/III, from November, 1940, to July, 1941, and as an Assistant Librarian under J. E. GREGG for the same corporation in Washington, D. C., from April, 1942, until August, 1942.

ELIZABETH TERRELL BENTLEY, self-confessed former Soviet espionage agent, identified JOSEPH B. GREGG, HELEN TENNEY, and ROBERT T. MILLER/III as individuals involved in a Soviet espionage conspiracy in Washington, D. C., and New York in the early 1940's.

SECURITY OF GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES

August 29 , 1956
New York, New York

RESULTS OF INVESTIGATION

New York T-9, one of the top literary agents in New York, furnished the following information on August 22, 1956:

He has known HAROLD OBER, the employee's father, about 30 years. He is acquainted with HAROLD OBER mainly through business, but is a limited social acquaintance. HAROLD OBER is one of the most respected literary agents in New York and has been in the field over 30 years, either working for someone or in business under his own name. HAROLD OBER has, in the last few years, taken in an associate by the name of IVAN VON AUW.

VON AUW, according to the informant, is "left-wing and a homosexual." By "left-wing" he stated over the years he has formed his opinion of VON AUW as a left-wing because of VON AUW's talk and actions. He could not specifically state any reason, just VON AUW's general attitude and conversation and the fact that VON AUW was Secretary of the Dramatists Guild of the Authors League of America, Incorporated, which organization the informant described as Communist infiltrated.

As for VON AUW's homosexuality, he is not effeminate nor are his actions objectional. The informant claims it is known throughout the industry that VON AUW is a homosexual, but he does not know any of his friends.

The informant is slightly acquainted with DOROTHY OLDING, HAROLD OBER's other associate, and he described her as a very nice girl, conservative and he has heard nothing concerning her which would lead him to question her character or loyalty.

The informant stated the literary field is "quite crowded" with people who are either members or former members of the Communist Party or who are sympathetic to the Communist Party. In order to do business literary agents must do business with such people, but, as in the case of the informant, that does not mean there exists a close personal friendship between the agent and such client.

The informant believes HAROLD OBER no doubt has been in contact with such people but the informant does not know any personal friends of HAROLD OBER whose loyalty is questionable. He said most of the clients of a literary agent are strictly business contacts and are not personal friends.

The informant stated he is acquainted with the OBER family but not too well. He advised he has met HAROLD OBER's wife and their two sons, and he has no reason to question the character, morals, reputation or loyalty of any member of the OBER family.

Information concerning the Authors League of America is set out in a previous report of this office in this matter.

Mr. S. SPENCER SCOTT, retired President of Harcourt, Brace and Company, 383 Madison Avenue, New York, New York, advised on August 28, 1956, that the has known the OBER family over 20 years. He said he is acquainted with HAROLD OBER both socially and through business. He described HAROLD OBER as the top literary agent in New York, and a man of the highest type character whose loyalty to the United States is without question.

He stated HAROLD OBER has had many distinguished authors as his clients and he never heard that any of HAROLD OBER's clients were people who were under suspicion of being Communists or sympathetic to its causes.

Mr. SCOTT stated he has met HAROLD OBER's associate, IVAN VON AUW, but does not feel he knows him well enough to comment on his character or loyalty.

Mr. SCOTT concluded by saying that the entire OBER family, the employee, his brother [redacted] and their parents, are people of excellent character and are true loyal Americans and that the United States Government is very fortunate that it has hired a man of the character, reputation and loyalty of RICHARD OBER.
